

The Faculty of Law at University of Graz offers a

Austrian Standards Fellowship

to ambitious early-stage-career researchers and senior researchers with outstanding international reputation in the summer term 2022 or the winter term 2022/23

Research topic:

The research topic should be related to legal questions or implications of technical norms and standards. Applications focusing on current ECJ case law (such as James Elliott), the “New Legislative Framework” or BATs are particularly encouraged. Other topics may be equally well-suited for the fellowship, provided there is a clear and well-argued advantage to working on them at the Faculty of Law of University of Graz.

Your Profile (Junior Fellowship):

- You hold a LL.B. (first-class honours), LL.M., or an equivalent degree in Law
- You are currently working on a PhD thesis in Law or have at least two years of work experience after graduation
- You have either excellent English or excellent German Language Skills

Your Profile (Senior Fellowship):

- You have an outstanding academic record and are internationally well-renowned in your field
- You currently hold a position as a Full Professor, Assistant Professor, Lecturer, Reader, or Post-Doc Researcher
- You have either excellent English or excellent German Language Skills

During your stay:

- You have multiple opportunities to discuss your research project with leading experts in their field at University of Graz
- You are given the opportunity to work on a specific publication project and present your results at the end of your stay

Your benefits are:

- An environment of excellent researchers with know-how in your area
- The chance to carry out interdisciplinary work across faculties at the University of Graz for 2-6 months
- A monthly stipend of 1,500 € for Senior Fellows and 1,200 € for Junior Fellows
- Travel expenses may be covered
